This certificate prepares recipients for entry-level positions in activities in long-term care, an area with frequent job openings, and to meet the psychosocial needs of older adults through individual and group therapeutic activities in diverse settings. Combined with the Certificate in Gerontological Social Services, it also provides knowledge and skills to support social service roles with the elderly. While enhancing employability and effectiveness in the field of aging, much of the content can also be applied to diverse fields of practice and is helpful for work with numerous populations.
