

College Well-Being Committee

September 5, 2007 2:00 pm -- F103

Attendees: Ashbaugh, Boettger, Deeds, Engle, Uitto, Wilson

Excused: Hammond, Warner

Reviewed committee mission and charge; discussed goals, guidelines and activities for the year.

Three gatherings will be held with various groups responsible for organizing the event. Fall event organized by the Contract Professional group will be held September 7th. The winter gathering will be held in December organized by the staff and the spring gathering will be organized by faculty. Dates for the winter and spring gatherings are to be announced at a later time.

Two College scholarship fundraising cook-offs are planned. Dessert cook-off scheduled for October and a Chili cook-off in March. Well-Being topics are to be determined and events scheduled. Events of interest will be promoted by the committee. Members will forward information to the College about well-being related community events in addition to College events.

The committee will meet the first Wednesday of each month at 2 pm. Meeting adjourned.

Succinctly,

Cher Deeds
