SUMMARY: WAYNE COLLEGE OFFERS HELP WITH FINANCIAL AID FORMS

Orrville, Ohio, Jan. 28, 2008 –The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) can be a confusing form for both students and parents. The University of Akron Wayne College is offering free Saturday morning FAFSA workshops at 9 a.m. on Feb. 2, March 1, April 5 and May 3 to clarify this important document for the financial aid process.

Representatives from Wayne College's Student Accounts and Financial Aid Office will lead participants through completion of the FAFSA online. They also will discuss the family financial information that must be included with the application and the importance of application deadlines. Reservations are necessary for these sessions and can be made by calling 330-684-8942.

Workshop participants should bring their Social Security number, 2007 W-2 forms and other records of income earned, driver's license, 2007 federal income tax return, parents' federal income tax return if a dependent, 2007 untaxed income records, current bank statements and investment records.

All workshops will be held at Wayne College, 1901 Smucker Road in Orrville, in computer lab A-225.
