SUMMARY: TUNE IN TO WAYNE COLLEGE

Orrville, Ohio, Feb. 2, 2007 – High school students and their parents are invited to “Tune In to Wayne College Day,” Tuesday, Feb. 20 at 6:30 p.m. at The University of Akron Wayne College.

Parents and prospective students will learn details about academic programs, admissions requirements, financial aid, career placement and other services offered to students. For students who are interested in earning college credit while still in high school, there will be information on the Postsecondary Enrollment Options Program (PSEOP). Wayne College student ambassadors will act as tour guides for the evening, and will be available to answer questions from the student’s perspective.

For more information or online reservations, go to Wayne College’s Web site, www.wayne.uakron.edu/tunein/rsvp.php, or call 330-684-8909 or 1-800-221-8308, ext. 8909.

Wayne College is a regional campus of The University of Akron, and offers the first two years of general bachelor’s degree courses for students who plan to complete their degrees at the Akron campus or other colleges and universities. The general education transfer program also leads to the associate of arts degree or the associate of science degree. In addition, Wayne College can prepare students for a variety of paraprofessional and technical careers in business, industry and public service by offering a range of occupational education programs. The campus is located at 1901 Smucker Road in Orrville.
